FIRST CHURCH IN HARTFORD.

HISTORICAL NOTICES.

THIS Church was originally gathered in Newtown, (now Cambridge,) Mass., and was duly organized by the installation of THOMAS HOOKER as pastor, and SAMUEL STONE as teacher, October 11th, 1633. It is supposed that William Goodwin was ordained as ruling elder, and Andrew Warner as deacon at the same time.

In June, 1636, Messrs. Hooker and Stone, with about one hundred of their people, removed to this place. Here the Church was permanently planted, being the first Church established in Connecticut; and here the ordinances of the gospel have been regularly administered from that time to the present.

This Church embraced the territory now occupied by the Churches of the City; of East Hartford, and of West Hartford. During the joint ministry of Messrs. WHITING and HAYNES, the former, with thirty-one members of the Church, withdrew and formed the South Church in this City, February 12th, 1669.

The Church in East Hartford was set off from this Church and received a separate organization in May, 1702 ; and that in West Hartford in February, 1713.

On the 23rd of September, 1824, ninety-seven members received dismissal from this Church, and were, with others, organized as the North Church.

On the 10th of January, 1832, eighteen members of this Church, having received dismissal, were organized, with others, as the Free Church, now the Fourth Church.

On the 14th of October, 1852, thirty-six members of this Church, and shortly afterward eleven more were dismissed to enter with others in forming the Pearl Street Church.

CHURCH NOTICES AND STANDING RULES.

1. The annual meeting of the Church is held on Tuesday, following the first Sabbath in January, at which a Prudential Committee is appointed, consisting of six members chosen by ballot, who, with the Deacons, assist the Pastor, by their counsel and influence, in promoting the peace and welfare of the Church, and in maintaining gospel discipline therein.

At the same meeting a stated clerk is chosen by ballot, and the usual annual business of the Church is transacted.

2. Persons wishing to profess religion and thereby become members of the church, are to give satisfactory evidence of Christian character; and after having been examined by the pastor and approved by the prudential committee, and having been publicly propounded two weeks, are to be received on their profession of faith, and solemn, public assent to the covenant of the church.

3. Any person bringing a letter of dismissal and recommendation from a Christian church, may be admitted to membership in this church, without a public assent to the covenant, having been examined by the pastor and approved by the prudential committee. Testimonials of such applicants are to be read to the church two weeks before they are received.

4. Members of this church, who remove out of town, are required to take a letter of dismissal from us, and unite with some church in or near the place where they reside, within one year after their removal.

5. Members of other churches wishing to commune with this church for more than one year, are desired to request a removal of their church relation to us, unless there be special reasons for delay.

6. This church holds itself ready, on due application, to dismiss and recommend its members to any other evangelical Christian church; but it is deemed an irregularity and a breach of covenant for any member to withdraw from its communion, without making such application.

7. The Lord's Supper is administered on the morning of the first Sabbath in December, February, April, June, August and October.

8. The church, whenever they come to the table of their Lord, cordially invite those who are in regular standing as members of other evangelical churches, of whatever name or denomination, to unite with them in celebrating his dying love.

9. Baptism is administered to adults at the time of their admission to the church,—to children in the afternoons of communion Sabbaths, and at such other times as parents find more convenient for presenting them.

10. Members, whether of the church or congregation, desirous of an interview with the pastor, on any account, are invited to call on him at his house, or they will be visited at their dwellings on making known their wishes to him.

11. At a meeting of the church held September 4th, 1846, the following plan was adopted for taking up collections in aid of benevolent societies.

Divide the Society into six collection Districts, and appoint a male and female Collector to each District for the year, whose duty it shall be to call upon the members of the Society for their contributions, at the time designated in this plan.

Appoint a Treasurer annually, to receive the monies collected, who shall pay over the same to the Societies for whose benefit the collections were made—he shall render, at the annual meeting of the Church, an account of all moneys received and paid over by him during the year.

LIMITS OF THE DISTRICTS.

No. 1. All south of the Stone Bridge and Mill River.

No. 2. South side of Asylum street, west of Main street to the Bridge, and all within those limits to the River.

No. 3. South side of State street, south and east side of Court House Square, east side of Main street to the Bridge, and all within those limits to the river.

No. 4. North side of State street, east of Main, North Main and Windsor streets, all within those limits to the river.

No. 5. North side of Asylum street, west side of Main and Windsor streets to the railroad.

No. 6. Lord's Hill and all west of the railroad including the depot.

Institutions for which contributions are to be taken up by the collectors, and the month in which collection is to be made, viz. :

American Education Society, in February.

American Bible Society, in April.

American Home Missionary Society, in May.

Seaman's Friend Society in June.

American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, in September.

Foreign Christian Union, in October.

Contributions to the American Tract Society, and Collegiate and Theological Education in the West, will be taken up by the Agents of those Societies, the Tract in January, and for the Colleges, in August.

The place of business, for business men, and not of residence to govern the collectors in their applications.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

ARTICLE I.

WE, as a Church, believe that Jehovah, the true and eternal God, who made, supports and governs the world, is perfect in natural and moral excellence, and that he exists in three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, who possess the same nature, and are equal in every divine perfection.

Deut. vi. 4 ; Isaiah xiv. 5 ; Psalm xc. 2 ; Neh. ix. 6 ; Math. x. 29, 30 ; 1 John iv. 8 ; Math. v. 48 ; Exo. xxxiv. 6, 7 ; John i. 1, 3 ; Phil. ii. 1, 6, 11 ; Heb. i. 2, 3, 6, 8 ; Acts v. 3, 4 ; Acts xiii. 2, 4 ; Math. xxviii. 19 ; 2 Cor. xiii. 14—see also Colos. i. 14 to 19 ; Rev. v. 8 to 13 ; 1 John v. 7, 8, 20.

ARTICLE II.

We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were written by holy men, as they were moved by the Holy Ghost, and are the infallible rule of doctrine and duty.

2 Tim. iii. 15 to 17 ; 2 Peter i. 19 to 21 ; Math. xxii. 29 ; Psalm cxix. 105 ; Psalm cxix. 97—see also Luke xxiv. 27, 44, 45 ; John v. 39 ; Isaiah viii. 20 ; Gal. i. 8 ; Rev. xxii. 18, 19.

ARTICLE III.

We believe that God has made all things for himself ; that known unto him are all his works from the beginning, and that he governs all things according to the council of his own will.

Rev. iv. 11 ; Romans xi. 36 ; Acts ii. 23 ; Isaiah xlvi. 10 ; Acts iv. 27, 28 ; Eph. i. 11 ; Psalm xxxiii. 11—see also Isaiah xiv. 7 ; Prov. xvi. 4, 19, 21 ; Heb. vi. 17 ; Malachi iii. 6.

ARTICLE IV.

We believe that men are immortal and accountable ; that the law of God is perfect and his government just and good ; and that all rational beings are bound to approve, love and obey them.

Eccles. xii. 7 ; Math. x. 28 ; Rom. xiv. 12 ; 2 Cor. v. 10 ; Rom. vii. 12—see also Ps. xix. 7, 9 ; Rev. xv. 3 ; Math. xxii. 32, 12, 36.

ARTICLE V.

We believe that in consequence of the apostacy of Adam, sin and misery have been introduced into the world, and that all men, unless renewed by the Holy Spirit, are destitute of holiness, and under the curse of the divine law.

Rom. v. 12, 19—see Gen. i. 26, 27 ; Eccles. vii. 29 ; Gen. vi. 5 ; Gen. viii. 21 ; Eccles. ix. 3 ; Jer. xvii. 9 ; John iii. 7, 8 ; Rom. viii. 6 to 8—see also Psalm xiv. 1 to 3 ; Eph. ii. 3 ; Rom. iii. 9 to 18 ; John iii. 36.

ARTICLE VI.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ assumed the nature of man, and by his mediation and death on the cross, made atonement for the sins of the world.

Heb. ii. 14, 16 ; John i. 14, 29 ; I John ii. 2 ; Rom. v. 8 ; Rev. v. 9—see also 1 Peter i. 18 to 20 ; Phil. ii. 6 to 8 ; 1 Tim. iii. 16 ; Math. xxvi. 28 ; Heb. vii. 27 ; 1 John ii. 2.

ARTICLE VII.

We believe that men may accept of the offers of salvation freely made to them in the Gospel ; but that no one will do this, except he be drawn by the Father.

Rev. xxii. 17 ; Isaiah xiv. 22 ; Ezek. xviii. 30, 31 ; Luke xiv. 17 ; John v. 40, 6, 44—see also Ezek. xxxiii. 11 ; Mark xvi. 15, 16 ; John vi. 37.

ARTICLE VIII.

We believe that those who are finally saved, will owe their salvation to the mere sovereign mercy of God, in Christ Jesus, through repentance and faith in him, and not to any works of righteousness which they have done.

Ezek. xxxvi. 26, 32 ; Eph. i. 3 to 5 ; 2 Thess. ii. 13 ; Rom. ix. 18, 21 ; Titus iii. 5—see also Acts xiii. 48 ; Rev. vii. 9, 10 ; John x. 11, 27, 17, 24 ; Rom. viii. 29, 30.

ARTICLE IX.

We believe that a conscientious discharge of the various duties which we owe to God, to our fellow-men, and to ourselves, as enjoined in the gospel, is not only constantly binding on every Christian, but affords to himself and to the world, the only decisive evidence of his interest in the Redeemer.

John xv. 14, 12, 8 ; Math. x. 37, 38 ; Luke vi. 46 ; James i. 26, 27—see also James iii. 17 : Math. xviii. 20, vi. 6 ; 2 Cor. i. 12 ; Micah vi. 8 ; Joshua i. 8.

ARTICLE X.

We believe that any number of Christians duly organized, constitute a church of Christ, the special ordinances of which are Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

Math. xviii. 17 ; xxviii. 19 ; Luke xxii. 19, 20—see also 1 Cor. xi. 20, 23 to 26 ; Acts viii. 36 ; ii. 41 ; xvi. 33 ; xvi. 15 ; 1 Cor. xi. 27, 29.

ARTICLE XI.

We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead both of the just and the unjust, that all men must hereafter appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, to receive a just and final retribution, according to the deeds done in the body ; and that the wicked will be sent away into everlasting punishment, and the righteous received into life eternal.

Such are the doctrines believed by this church.—
Do you cordially assent to them ?

2 Cor. v. 10 ; Acts xvii. 31 ; Math. xiii. 40 to 43 ; 2 Peter ii. 4, 9 ; 2 Thess. i. 6 to 10 ; Heb. x. 31 ; Rev. xx. 12, 15 ; xxi. 8 ; Math. xxv. 31 to 46—see also John xvii. 24 . 1 Thess. iv. 17 ; Rom. ii. 2 to 12, 16 ; Eccles. xii. 14 ; Jude vi. 15 ; Dan. xii. 2 ; Mark viii. 38 ; Rev. xxii. 10, 11, 12.

COVENANT.

IN the presence of God and this assembly, you do now seriously, deliberately and forever give up yourselves in faith and love and holy obedience, to God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost;—accepting the Lord Jehovah to be your God; Jesus Christ to be your prophet, priest and king;—and the Holy Ghost to be your Sanctifier, Comforter and Guide.—Although sensible of your weakness and guilt, and of your liability to error and sin, still you do sincerely desire, and by the aids of Divine grace, do promise, to receive in love the pure doctrines of the gospel, to walk in the statutes and ordinances of the Lord blameless, and to do honor to your high and holy vocation by a life of piety towards God and benevolence towards your fellow-men.

You do, also, cordially join yourselves to this church of Christ, engaging to submit to its discipline, so far as conformable to the rules of the gospel, and solemnly covenanting, as much as in you lies, to promote its peace, edification, and purity, and to walk with its members in Christian love, faithfulness, circumspection, sobriety and meekness.

Thus you promise and engage, in humble reliance on the grace of God, and with an affecting belief that your vows are recorded on high and will be reviewed in the day of final judgment.

[Here the members of the Church rise.]

In consequence of these professions and promises, we cordially receive you as members of this church; we welcome you to fellowship and communion with us in the blessings of the gospel, and engage on our part, according to the opportunity and ability given unto us, to treat you with Christian affection, to watch over you with tenderness, and to seek your edification in Christ, so long as you shall continue among us. Should you have occasion to remove from us to reside within the bounds or in the neighborhood of another church, we shall hold it our duty to give, as it will be your duty to ask, a recommendation from us, which shall place you under the watch and care of that portion of the family of Christ.

And now, beloved in the Lord, let it be impressed on your minds that you have entered into solemn engagements, from which you can never be released. Wherever you go, these vows will be upon you; they will follow you through life, be with you in death and at the bar of God, and in whatever world you may be fixed, will abide upon you to eternity. You can never again be as you have been. You have unalterably committed yourselves, and henceforth you must be the servants of God. Hereafter the eyes of the world will be upon you; and as you demean yourselves so religion will be honored or disgraced. If you walk worthy of your profession, you will be a credit and a comfort to us; but if it be otherwise, you will be to us a grief and sorrow of heart. And if there is a woe pronounced on him who offends one of Christ's little ones, what must be the sin and guilt of him who offends a whole church. But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak. May the Lord guide and preserve you till death, and at last receive you and us into the Church of the First Born in heaven, where our communion and joy will be forever perfect.

AMEN.

QUESTIONS OF EXAMINATION FOR PROFESSORS OF RELIGION.

1. Are you at present in the exercise of a true spirit of piety—humble, tender, prayerful—disposed to know and do whatever God requires of you, as necessary to promote his glory, your own spiritual improvement, and the salvation of your fellow-men?

2. What is the prevailing tenor of your conversation? Is it spiritual or worldly—serious or trifling; adapted to help or to hinder others in the great concern of life?

3. With whom do you associate as your intimate friends? What are the prospects for another world of those in whose company you take most delight, and what influence has your example upon them? Is it holy, or unholy? Will it save or destroy?

4. Do you esteem it a privilege to deny yourself for Christ's sake? And is it a pleasure rather than a grief to be called to engage in sacrifices and services to advance his kingdom?

5. Do you love and study the Bible? Do you understand and prize its doctrines and duties? Do its precepts regulate your intercourse with men and your communion with God?

6. Do you perform the duty of secret and family prayer? How often and with what spirit? Have you enjoyment in these duties; or do you perform them as a task, merely to pacify conscience, or keep up the form of religion?

7. Is your religion merely negative, not doing any harm; or are you positively active in devising and executing plans of usefulness?

8. How do you spend the Sabbath? Is it, to you, a day holy to the Lord, a delight and honorable; and are you careful never to profane its sacred hours, by worldly conversation, business or traveling?

9. Do you strive at all times to act from a regard to the will and the glory of God? When you pray for knowledge, self-denial, zeal and holiness, do you really desire that your prayers should be answered; and do you prove that you have such a desire, by a diligent use of means for the attainment of these blessings?

10. Do you in reliance on the Holy Spirit, strives to govern your temper, subdue your passion, and quell a spirit of fault-finding with your brethren and others around you? Are you of a meek, forgiving temper? And is there in your tongue the law of kindness, and not of evil speaking or slander?

11. If you are a parent, are your children baptized—instructed in the truth, commended to God in prayer, and educated for eternity?

12. What proportion of your worldly property do you sanctify to the Lord? In what do you deny yourself for the purpose of doing good?

13. Do you feel any tender, practical concern for the salvation of sinners out of Christ? What have you ever done, what are you in the habit of doing, for the conversion of the impenitent and the perishing around you? Is there one to whom you are faithful, for whose conversion you feel any special interest, or who is likely to be saved by your instrumentality?

14. Are you interested in the Weekly Prayer Meeting of the church; the Monthly Concert; the Sabbath School? And do you sustain them by your presence, your influence, and your prayers?

15. Do you realize that you are to live but once?—That the character you form here, whether holy or sinful, will be yours forever?—that the influence you are exerting, whether for good or for evil, will be felt when you are dead?

16. Do you aim so to live that you may be habitually ready for the coming of the Son of man ; and should you now be called to die, have you reason to believe that you should die in peace and go to be forever with the Lord?

QUESTIONS FOR THOSE WHO CONTEMPLATE MAK-ING A PUBLIC PROFESSION OF RELIGION.

1. You wish to profess religion—Why?
2. Are you a Christian? What evidence satisfies you of it?
3. When you are admitted to the church, should this be the case, will you feel that your work is ended, or only just begun? that you need more knowledge, more experience, more grace, more zeal ; and is it your purpose steadily to aim at higher attainments in these particulars?
4. Are you cordially willing to cast in your lot with the people of God, to be a companion* of all them that fear him and keep his precepts ; and to be subject, in the Lord, to the oversight and discipline of his house?
5. Do you desire to be useful in the cause of that blessed Redeemer, in whom you have hope?
6. Do you realize that the act of profession is your own? the responsibility of it yours? that to profess religion is one thing, and to possess it is another ; and is it your desire not only to have the form, but the power of godliness ?

7. Have you any hearty and prayerful and practical desire for the salvation of souls ?

8. Are you willing in any known respect, or whenever duty requires, to deny yourself for Christ's sake ?

9. Do you expect to renounce the world as your portion, when you avouch the Lord in public ?

10. Is it your highest desire and settled purpose to be holy and walk with God to the end of your life ?

11. Do you love Christians, as Christians ? or because they love God and God loves them ?

12. Did you ever solemnly ponder the question, supposing you are a true disciple of the Saviour, why did I ever become such, when others live and die in sin ?—Who maketh me to differ from another, and what have I that I did not receive ?

13. Do you cordially believe and love the great doctrines and duties of the Bible ; and is it your earnest desire to grow in grace and in the knowledge of your Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ ?

14. Do you at heart highly prize the love of Christ, the glory of God, and the progress of religion in the world ? And are you willing to devote your life, to the end of it, to the honor and service of your Redeemer and to the advancement of his cause on earth ?
